How will the garden furniture be used?

Our garden furniture has been designed for every purpose. We offer amazing dining sets, sofa sets, benches and more. When deciding how to choose your garden furniture, firstly decide what you'll be using it for.

Many people need compact seating for small gardens, extensive seating for parties, garden furniture for lounging and relaxing and of course dining sets for alfresco dining.

We've covered all of these categories, so you can specifically find what garden furniture you are looking for.

Sofa Sets for Garden Parties

If you love hosting garden parties and get-together's, having extensive seating provides your friends and guests with a comfortable place to relax and chat.

BillyOh Sala Rattan Corner Dining Sofa Set

Material

Whether you need garden furniture to match an existing set or aren't sure which material is best to go for. We have a fantastic range of garden furniture in a variety of styles so that we can cater to your wants and needs.

Each material of our garden furniture has different qualities and aspects which suit everyone differently. Be it traditional wooden furniture or our weather resistant rattan, we've got it all covered with our great choices.

Wooden Garden Furniture

We have fantastic garden furniture, made from wood and ranging from traditional garden benches to dining sets and sun loungers. We recommend treating wooden furniture annually to fully protect the wood from bugs and bad weather.

Traditional Style

Wooden furniture is the perfect choice if you are looking for traditional outdoor furniture that will complement your garden. We offer two types of hardwood which have a classic appearance and durable properties.

Eucalyptus Hardwood

Eucalyptus is a strong and long-lasting wood which naturally makes a great material for garden furniture. The rich tones of the wood look great in a traditional setting.

Acacia Hardwood

Acacia hardwood has a stylish finish which looks great in any garden but is also durable and long-lasting. We use acacia on different garden furniture, from benches to dining tables.

Rattan Garden Furniture

Rattan garden furniture is becoming increasingly popular as it has a stylish and modern appearance, which enhances the look of any garden. We have a fantastic range of garden furniture which is made from rattan.

Durable Material

Our rattan furniture is made from a durable synthetic material which is lightweight and called polyethene rattan. It is more resistant to sunlight damage and water so makes a perfect material for garden furniture. It has the appearance of wicker but with more durable properties.

Half-Weave Rattan

The half-weave rattan has a stylish appearance and looks great in a garden setting. It exudes luxury and makes a fantastic addition to an outdoor area.

Flat-Weave Rattan

Flat-weave rattan has a more shiny appearance and is naturally very water-resistant. It looks modern and enhances any garden setting.

Metal Garden Furniture

Metal furniture is a great option for your garden as it requires little maintenance to look great all year round. Our range of metal garden furniture has been designed with comfort and style in mind.

Aluminium and Steel Framing

Metal is a material renowned for its durable and strong properties. We use aluminium and steel framing for our garden furniture which is rust-resistant and sturdy. As aluminium is lightweight, this makes a great choice for your garden furniture, as you can easily manoeuvre the items around.

Textilene Fabric

Combined with the durable Textilene fabric used on garden chairs, you are provided with garden furniture that is made to last and equipped for all weathers.

Reclining Positions

Some of our metal chairs have several reclining positions, which make it easy for you to get comfy while relaxing or dining.

We hope this helps!
